San Antonio, Tex., July 20.—Not one soldier that I rubbed elbows with in all the armies of Europe in the past two years ever worried as some of these American soldiers along the edge of Mexico.

These Americans I refer to are worrying about their families back home; they don't know whether their wives and children have enough to eat. Such a deplorable situation could not possibly exist in any European army, for European governments care for the families of their soldiers.

The Mexican government doesn't; we don't. I've talked with hundreds of soldiers of six different armies in Europe. I talked today with my first soldier of the new American armies. I talked to Europeans in artillery pits, trenches and dugouts, but I talked with the American in a jitney going
